Thank you for downloading this application package, please complete the forms and return them to me. You are able to complete the forms electronically with Adobe Acrobat Reader 5 or greater, if you prefer you can print them out and complete them by hand. If you complete them electronically, simply email them back to me at the address above. The process isn't complicated and shouldn't take too long to complete, if you have any questions or concerns about it please don't hesitate to contact me.

The application is in three parts, the application, pedigree chart, and an essay: First is the application form, which should be straightforward. I want to know how to get a hold of you for more than just a semester or two.

Second is the pedigree chart, this is how we figure out how you connect to Earl & Eliza Halls, Glenn's Parents. The chart is three pages long, the first two pages are a family group record and is all about you, and if applicable, your husband/wife and children. Simply enter your information in either the husband or the wife location (as appropriate) if you have any children complete those sections as well. The second builds the connection from you to Earl Halls & Eliza Winter-Halls. Remember to fill it out as completely as possible, even for the parent that does not connect you to the Halls line. Yes, this will require a little investigation and effort on your part; perhaps you may learn something about your heritage.

Lastly, I am looking for an essay. Your essay should be a MINIMUM OF THREE FULL PAGES, typed on 8.5 x 11 paper, 1-inch margins, 12-point type, and double-spaced. I am looking for a strong introductory paragraph, solid body, and a conclusion that sums up the essay. Choose any one topic from the list below:

1. Why is college important to you
2. Why is serving a mission important to you
3. An experience that changed your life
4. An experience with your grandparents that taught you a life lesson
5. Is family important? Support your conclusion with examples.
6. Interview a member of your family that is not part of your generation (i.e. not your siblings, or first cousins)
7. What you hope to accomplish with your education
8. What do you plan to do in life and why? You may give several well-documented thoughtful answers.
9. If you have another topic you would like to write on please contact me, we can work something out.

Include, in your application, a recent photograph, a cover letter telling me about your financial requirements and how you intend to cover your expenses.

Glenn was a thrifty man; I operate the trust in that same spirit. We have at our disposal an excellent national education system that includes community colleges, state schools, and economical private education. The trust will help fund your education based on your needs, your own effort, and your success. While we would like everyone to have an Ivy League education, the trust simply cannot afford that. By choosing economical institutions for your education, we can help with a larger percentage of your costs. The trust can assist you with tuition and other non-refundable expenses based on the criteria mentioned. I always consider special needs, if you have a reason for additional assistance please let me know. Glenn wanted to provide opportunities, not create roadblocks.

After reviewing your application, I will contact you to discuss the specifics of the program. In general, we will continue assistance each semester you are in school with a simple verification of your previous semesters grades.

I look forward to hearing from you and helping you on your way to a better life!

Yours truly,

Earl Halls, Trustee
